

Angie Katsamakis

OPERATIONS

Angie is an administrative assistant at Weiss with more than six years of experience in CPA firm environments, including a background in tax administration, client service, office management, and accounting support. Angie holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Loyola University Chicago and a Juris Doctor from the University of Illinois Chicago. She works part time during the off season and full time during busy season, supporting the team with organization, accuracy, and a solid understanding of the demands of a CPA firm. Outside of Weiss, Angie is active in the community and serves on the executive board of her church, the fundraising board of the Glenview Public Library, and the fundraising board of the Glenview Park District. She is also leading clothing and diaper drive efforts for Cradles to Crayons through her church.

When not working, Angie enjoys cycling, reading, and spending time in nature, including strolling through the Chicago Botanic Gardens.
